Deireadh Seachtaine Gaeile/Irish Language Weekend

Fáilte and welcome back to the Spring Semester. What better way to dive back in than immersing yourself in Gaeilge? The Center for Celtic Studies' Irish Language Weekend is just around the corner at the beginning of March, and it is a wonderful opportunity to connect with other students and speakers of Irish. Lessons are available for everyone from complete beginners to advanced learners in a relaxed and fun atmosphere. The Siopa Gaeilge will also be present and filled with Irish language books and media. We're looking forward to seeing you there!
